

FDP on National Education Policy (NEP) 2020

SGAD Government College, Tarn Taran hosted one day Faculty Development Program (FDP) focused on the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 on 14th Feb 2023. Dr. Chandan Prakash from I.K. Gujral Punjab Technical University (IKGPTU), Kapurthala was the resource person for the workshop.

The event aimed to provide educators with insights into the transformative reforms outlined in the NEP 2020 and their implications for higher education.

Dr. Chandan Prakash, an esteemed expert in educational policy and administration, led the enlightening session, delving into the key provisions of NEP 2020 and their potential to revolutionize the Indian education system. Participants had the opportunity to engage in interactive discussions, exchange ideas, and gain practical strategies for implementing NEP 2020 initiatives in their respective institutions.

The FDP served as a platform for educators to deepen their understanding of NEP 2020's vision of holistic and multidisciplinary education, flexible curriculum frameworks, and the integration of technology in teaching and learning processes. Attendees also explored strategies for fostering critical thinking, creativity, and innovation among students, in alignment with the objectives of the policy.

Handwritten signature

22/3/24
Principal
S.G.A.D. Govt. College
Tarn Taran Handwritten signature

The event witnessed enthusiastic participation from faculty members reflecting a collective commitment to staying abreast of the latest developments in educational policy and practice. Through such initiatives, SGAD Government College continues to foster a culture of continuous learning and professional development among its faculty, ultimately benefiting the student community and contributing to the advancement of higher education in the region.

erit

2
22/3/24
Principal
S.G.A.D. Govt. College
Tarn Taran
erit

NAAC ORIENTATION WORKSHOP FOR THE FACULTY

SGAD Government College hosted a Faculty Development Workshop focused on National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) accreditation, featuring Dr. Gagan Gahley, Assistant Director of the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) at Guru Nanak Dev University (GNDU), Amritsar, as the esteemed speaker. The workshop aimed to enhance faculty members' understanding of the NAAC accreditation process and equip them with the necessary tools and knowledge to pursue institutional excellence.

Dr. Gagan Gahley, an authority in quality assurance and accreditation processes, shared invaluable insights into the NAAC accreditation criteria, assessment parameters, and best practices for achieving st

22/3/24
Principal
S.G.A.D. Govt. College
Tarn Taran

accreditation success. Participants had the opportunity to gain practical guidance on compiling the self-study report, preparing for peer team visits, and addressing the requirements outlined by NAAC.

The workshop served as a platform for faculty members to engage in meaningful discussions, exchange experiences, and clarify doubts regarding the accreditation process. Through interactive sessions, attendees explored strategies for quality enhancement, institutional planning, and aligning academic practices with NAAC standards.

SGAD Government College reaffirms its commitment to academic excellence and quality assurance through initiatives like the Faculty Development Workshop on NAAC Accreditation. By empowering faculty members with the requisite knowledge and skills, the college endeavors to strengthen its institutional capabilities and contribute to the continuous improvement of higher education standards in the region.

si

22/3/24
Principal
S.G.A.D. Govt. College
Tarn Taran si